B. WARNINGS

1. NOTIFICATIONS: The contact details of the policy owner/ insured provided within the policy (address, email and GSM number) shall be considered to be accurate and complete. In the cases, where the contact details of the policy owner/ insured have not been submitted to the insurer accurately or completely, the inaccurate and/ or incomplete contact details within the policy have not been corrected or a written notice has not been served to the insurer for the modification of the contact details within the policy; any notice or notification that is sent to the contact address and/or GSM number specified within the policy shall be considered to have been served validly and effectively to the policy owner/ insured and shall lead to any and all effects and consequence of legally valid and duly served notices and notifications. In the event the contact details of the insured and the policy owner are inaccurate and/or incomplete, you should ensure the same to be revised and updated through the relevant Agent or the Call Center.
2. Further details on the insurance product, to which this information form pertains, shall be made available within the General Terms of Casco Insurance, General Terms of Personal Accident Insurance, General Terms of Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance and the General Terms of Legal Protection Insurance, which shall be provided by the insurer upon request.
3. The total insurance premium or, if payment in installments is agreed, the first installment shall be paid upon conclusion of the contract in exchange of the delivery of the insurance policy. Unless agreed otherwise, the liability of the insurer shall attach upon payment of the premium or the first installment. In the event such first installment of the premium, or the total premium, which is payable at once and in advance, fails to be timely paid; the policy owner shall be in default. In that case; the insurer may avoid the contract unless such payment is effected within three months, which shall commence to run from the date of maturity. The insurer shall have avoided the contract unless the premium receivable is claimed by way of a legal action or proceedings within three months as of the relevant maturity date.
4. In order to avoid any future dispute, please remember to receive a documentary proof of payment (in advance) for your premium payments (for advance payment or payment in installments) and retain such proof of payment.
5. In the event any subsequent installment is not paid at the relevant maturity date, the insurer shall notify the policyholder through a notary public or via certified and registered mail, in which it shall grant the policy owner a period of ten days for the fulfillment of the relevant outstanding obligation thereof, and notice the policy owner that, should it fail to do so by the date of expiration of such period, the contract shall be deemed to have been
