- Flexible Payment Plan: In the event that the monthly installment amounts of loans with flexible payment plan are less than the total monthly interests, funds and taxes, an "outstanding interest balance" will occur. In your loan transactions, this total outstanding interest, if any, and the taxes and funds related to it will be included to your loan balance.
- Sample payment schedule: As attached to this information plan, sample payment schedule prepared based on the contractual interest rate stated on this form for your loan amount and term request, and in case of loan offers which with insurance and without insurance, sample payment plans for both offers have been delivered to you.If the installment amounts of this loan are equal, a comparative information regarding the installment amount and the total repayment amount can be presented instead of the sample payment plan.
- Establishing an account: In case of opening a current account linked to a loan agreement and performing transactions only in connection to the loan, no fees or costs shall be charged for this account. This account connected to the loan, will be closed automatically upon the repayment of the loan; if the account is being used only for loan related transactions and if the account balance is zero and if at the same time there is no product / service connected to this account unless otherwise conveyed to our Bank by you written or via recorded data storage instruments. In the event of any circumstances preventing the account closure, it is necessary to obtain your explicit written request or a request placed via recorded data storage instruments regarding the closure of the account, the closure operation can be carried out by our Relation Managers upon your closure request.
- Loan Set up Fee: It is five per thousand (0.5%) of the loan amount as stated above. Amount shall be set off and collected from the loan amount deposited on the account or paid in advance. There is not any notarial fee applied to these loans, but in such a case, this notarial cost shall be at your own cost.
- Default: The event of default shall be the case if you fail to make loan installment repayments on due dates. In this case, default interest shall accrue on the principal sum within the unpaid installment. If you fail to pay two installments consecutively, you shall be warned to pay debt within at least 30 (thirty) days of such warning by the bank (you shall be required to pay the amount in full). If you fail to repay the remaining debt in full within 30 (thirty) days, the Bank will initiate legal proceedings, and you will have to cover trial expenses and attorneyship fees along with the aforementioned default interest. When the debt becomes default, the Bank sends written notification to the address of the client. The cost of this notice shall be charged to all your deposit accounts and / or reflected to your account as a liability. In the event that the loan debt becomes due, it may take legal action to convert the pledge, which is the bank guarantee, into money and collect its receivable.
- Insurance:
 - The name of the loan-related insurance offered with this loan is "Credit Life Insurance". The term of the credit life insurance is the same as the maturity of the loan. Credit life insurance is valid throughout the loan maturity and is not subject to renewal.
 - You are not allowed to take out a policy in connection to the loan without an explicit written request or a request placed via recorded data storage instruments. However, credit life insurance is necessary to constitute collateral surety for this loan. Relevant insurance items may be taken out by another insurance company other than our Bank provided to be in compliance with the loan. Provided that they are compatible with the loan, you may present existing insurance policies for collateral surety. If you take out a policy for credit life insurance via our Bank, total insurance premium debt shall be blocked at your account or at a sub-account, and you may not dispose such amount. Under any circumstances, insurance policies must indicate the Bank as the loss payee. This means that insurance indemnities equivalent to the remaining loan debt will be pledged to the Bank. When you have a loan life insurance policy has been purchased through our bank and you pay of your loan early, your loan life insurance policy will be terminated and return of the insurance premium will be deposited to your bank account/credit card by which you have made the premium payment, in accordance to the insurance termination conditions. In the event of a change on the payment plan of your loan and if you have purchased a loan life insurance policy through our bank, such policy will be terminated and return of the insurance premium will be deposited to your bank account/credit card by which you have made the premium payment in accordance with the insurance termination conditions. Upon your explicit request in writing or through the recorded data register, a new loan life insurance can be contracted compatible with your changed payment plan.

- Collateral: Personal sureties received against your actions shall be deemed ordinary guarantee notwithstanding their category; and in case of personal sureties provided against your receivables these shall be deemed joint guarantee unless otherwise is specified under other laws.
- Extension of the Loan from Digital Channels: You can also use a personal loan via HSBC Internet Banking or HSBC Mobile Channels as Distance Agreements. In this case, the loan agreement will be concluded over telecommunication tool. No additional written agreement will be signed between you and our Bank. The loan will be extended based on the pre-extension notification and your approval regarding the agreement. For both with insurance and without insurance preference if the loan installment amounts are equal, comparative information regarding the installment amount and the total repayment amount instead of the sample payment plan is given at the time of application. You can access these loan documents at any time through HSBC Internet Banking and HSBC Mobile Channels. In the presence of justifiable reasons, you or our Bank may terminate the agreement at any time provided that the personal loan debt is repaid including all interests and secondary's to accrue, by giving a written notice or notifying through the recorded data register. In this case, no penalty will be applied.
- Right of withdrawal: You have the right of withdrawal within fourteen (14) days from the drawdown date without stating any reasons or paying any penalties. Withdrawal notice must be submitted to the Bank via branch or telephone banking. Within 30 (thirty) days after your withdrawal notice, the whole amount including loan principal amount and interest calculated based on the contractual interest rate for the period elapsed after utilization of loan and taxes thereof must be repaid. If a payment is not made within the indicated time period, you are considered not to have withdrawn. In this circumstance, an event of default will occur due to the late payment of the loan installments fall in the thirty-day period after the withdrawal notification and the default interest will be charged. On the day you will make the payment, please apply to your local branch to learn about the loan pay-off amount. Please note that it is necessary for you to inform your branch (or provide information via the telephone banking) once you make the payment. You will not be requested of any costs other than the capital and the contractual interest calculated with all taxes thereof and expenses paid to any public institution or organization or any third party. If the entire loan debt is paid early within the right of withdrawal period, loan will be closed by using right of withdrawal without seeking notice of withdrawal.
- Early installment payment /interim payment /early pay-off: You may pay undue installments, make interim payment or pay off the loan earlier. For the early installment payment, you shall utilize the discount to be applied on the interest amount by the bank to the extent of the early payment days. In the case of interim payment or early pay-off, remaining principal and interests accrued until your transaction date and taxes thereof shall be collected and loan paid-off by the bank, thereby the loan agreement shall be deemed to be terminated. In the case of interim payment, there is no need to execute a new agreement, and a new payment schedule shall be drawn up and dates of installment included in the payment schedule shall not be modified after the interim payment.
